HELP GUIDE THE FUTURE OF ARROYO GRANDE

ARROYO GRANDE, CALIFORNIA - The City of Arroyo Grande invites the public to a Community Forum on Monday, January 5, 2015 to share their top three (3) fundamental skills, characteristics, talents or experiences that they think is important in City Manager candidates. The Community Forum will be held at the Arroyo Grande City Council Chambers, 215 East Branch Street, from 6 pm to 7 pm.

No formal action will be taken by the City Council at this meeting. Bobbi Peckham, from the recruiting firm Peckham & McKenney, will facilitate the forum to obtain input, comments and feedback relating to the recruitment of a new City Manager for the City of Arroyo Grande. Recruitment of a new City Manager is anticipated to take several months and begins with creating a profile of the ideal candidate. The forum will provide an opportunity for members of the public to share the three (3) most important characteristics that define their ideal candidate. Members of the public are encouraged to attend. Individuals who are unable to attend the meeting can share their comments/suggestions by contacting Bobbi Peckham at bobbi@peckhamandmckenney.com.
