I wanted to thank all of the brave men and women that work to protect our community. We are living through an uncertain time, and everything seems to be shifting.

Thank you for putting your life on the line so that we can sleep safely at night. Thank you for upholding the laws of this nation, and for keeping our community free of danger. The police officers that work to protect us are heroes, Arroyo Grande is a better place because of this department. Thank you is just two small words compared to your sacrifices, just know that your bravery and strength is greatly appreciated and will never be forgotten. Thank you.
